AMP announces the acquisition of Teltronic: a step-change in Defense and National Security.

Business description

Amper (AMP) is a Spanish group that operates through two business lines: (i) energy and sustainability (offshore wind platform engineering, offshore wind turbine platform engineering, deployment, and maintenance of power grids, etc.; 57% o/revenue 2025), (ii) defense, security and communications (43% o/revenue 2025). Spain is its principal market (c. 70% o/revenue).

BINDING OFFER TO ACQUIRE TELTRONIC (<9X 2025 EV/EBITDA)... AMP has announced the signing of a binding offer to acquire 100% of Next Gen Critical Comms (Teltronic) from Nazca Capital and its managed funds. The price consists of a fixed amount of EUR 155 Mn (implying an Enterprise Value of <9x 2025 EBITDA) and an additional earn-out of up to EUR 45 Mn subject to the achievement of specific targets (maximum price of EUR 200 Mn).

VIA A HYBRID STRUCTURE (CASH + STOCK). The transaction will be settled through: (i) EUR 111 Mn in cash, accounting for the potential entry of co-investors; and (ii) EUR 44 Mn via a non-cash capital increase, which would grant the sellers c. 7.75% of AMP's post-transaction capital (issue price: EUR 0.23/share; a +15% premium vs. closing). The earn-out, if triggered, would be paid in cash.

The closing of the deal is expected before June 15, 2026, subject to Shareholders' Meeting approval and regulatory clearances (the eventual accounting impact on 2026e is currently unknown). At year-end 2025, AMP reported net debt of EUR 82.1 Mn and a cash balance of EUR 129.1 Mn. The financing structure (co-investors + partial stock payment) limits the impact on AMP's balance sheet and signals "the search for a stable and sustained partnership" between AMP and Nazca, who will hold a significant stake in the company. This potential partnership is particularly relevant given the increasing consolidation within the Defense sector.

STEP-CHANGE AND REINFORCEMENT OF THE EQUITY STORY: TELTRONIC WOULD CONTRIBUTE C. EUR 20 MN OF EBITDA. Teltronic is a leading Spanish company in mission-critical radio communication systems, with an industrial base in Zaragoza, over 50 years of history, and a presence in six countries. The company develops radio infrastructure, terminals, and control systems based on TETRA, LTE, and 5G technologies, with exposure to sectors such as public safety, transportation, and industrial services.

The acquisition will strengthen AMP's positioning in National Defense and Security, incorporating technology, industrial capabilities, and a relevant international presence (Brazil, Mexico, the US, and Canada).

The deal aligns with AMP's inorganic growth plan (3-5 acquisitions in National Defense and Security) and represents a major leap in scale and market position. Teltronic's 2025 EBITDA of c. EUR 20 Mn (vs. AMP's EUR 46.3 Mn) will accelerate growth in the National Defense and Security segment. Furthermore, the acquisition reinforces AMP's strategic profile as a technological integration platform within the Spanish defense ecosystem.

In short, this is a truly material transaction (EUR 155 Mn purchase price; c. 35% of AMP's EUR 448.4 Mn Market Cap) that allows AMP to accelerate growth in National Defense and Security—a segment to which the stock price is highly sensitive due to superior growth expectations—and advances the inorganic growth roadmap defined in the 2026-2028 Strategic Plan.
